DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Railroad Commissioner, J. FLETCHER DEMPSEY,
of Hopkins County.

Rosa Bonheur, the famous animal painter, is dead in Paris.

Editor Westover, of the Williamstown Courier, comes out in a strong article for Goebel.

Dewey cables that he will not be home before October. He will make the trip leisurely.

Col. E. W. Cole, one of Nashville's wealthiest citizens, died suddenly in New York Wednesday night of apoplexy.

Gen. Hardin made three speeches in Union county last week, closing the canvass at Morganfield Saturday afternoon and at Uniontown at night.

Only 30 Cuban soldiers at Havana have been paid the $75 bounty of the United States. Many imposters apply. The great mass of the soldiers refuse to accept the money.

Congressman Chas. K. Wheeler denies any authority for the published statement in the Courier Journal that he is now, or even prospectively, a candidate for U. S.
Senator.

The attempt to hold a Gubernatorial Peace Conference in Fayette conference was a failure. It will be a hot fight from now on with all three of the candidates claiming the county.

Miss Zoe Everett won the contest for the honor of being the most popular young lady in Union county, and was awarded the prize offered by the Morganfield Sun. Miss Ethel Finnie was her closest competitor.

The abuse of the pardoning power, by Lieut. Gov. Worthington, during the absence of the Governor, is said to have exasperated Gov.
Bradley until their relations have become quite strained. During the two weeks he acted as Governor, Worthington pardoned 32 criminals, many of them murderers and rapists sent up for life. The defense of this abuse of power will be another issue forced upon the incapable Republicans, who have been trying to govern the State.

In a remarkable sermon at the Broadway Baptist church Sunday morning, the Rev. Carter Helm Jones denounced the action of the trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in accepting Dr. W. H. Whitsitt's resignation as President of that institution. He said Dr. Whitsitt was the victim of combined malice and ignorance.
During the sermon the congregation was much wrought up, some of the men stamping their feet in approval and many women crying.

The State Commercial Convention opened yesterday in Louisville.
Mayor Weaver delivered the welcome address, and Hon. C. J. Brons-ton, of Lexington, responded. Gov.
Bradley was chosen temporary chairman. Many matters of importance to the commercial interest of Kentucky were discussed, and a movement was started to form a league of all the Commercial Clubs of the State. The meeting will end this evening with a reception at the Galt House.

Now that the hypnotist has gone, politics will be given another inning. The triangular fight for the delegation in this county promises to be spectacular in the closing days of the campaign. Goebel will return on the 9th of June and his friends claim he will leave behind him a trail of enthusiasm like the tail of a comet. Viewed from the present point of observation, Christian is still anybody's county.

Hardin county is to be one of the fiercely fought battle grounds. Goebel returns June 6 and Stone June 10 and each will make four speeches in the county, one introduced by Congressman Smith and the other by Congressman Rhea. Harry Sommers is making the fight of his life for Hardin in the county that bears his name.

Shanklin-Combs.

Mr. Mack Shanklin, a well known young Fairview farmer, and Miss Jessie Combs, the pretty daughter of Mr. John Combs, of the same neighborhood, will be united in marriage to-morrow. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the middle ear, and unless this inflammation is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by inflammation of the mucous membrane of the middle ear. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this

"Out of Sight Out of Mind."

In other months we forget the harsh winds of Spring.
But they have their use, as some say, to blow out the bad air accumulated after Winter storms and Spring thaws. There is far more important accumulation of badness in the veins and arteries of humanity, which needs Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great Spring Medicine clarifies the blood as nothing else can. It cures scrofula, kidney disease, liver troubles, rheumatism and kindred ailments. Thus it gives perfect health, strength and appetite for months to come.

Kidneys—"My kidneys troubled me, and on advice took Hood's Sarsaparilla which gave prompt relief, better appetite.
My sleep is refreshing. It cured my wife also." MICHAEL BOTLE, 3475 Denny Street, Pittsburg, Pa.

Dyspepsia—"Complicated with liver and kidney trouble, I suffered for years with dyspepsia, with severe pains. Hood's Sarsaparilla made me strong and hearty."
J. B. EMMERTON, Main Street, Auburn, Me.

Hip Disease—"Five running sores on my hip caused me to use crutches. Was confined to bed every winter. Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my life, as it cured me perfectly. Am strong and well." ANNIE ROBERT, 49 Fourth St., Fall River, Mass.

HYPNOTIST HART.

He Has Gone, after Coining Money
For a Week.

"Hart, the Laugh King" closed his week's engagement Saturday night with perhaps the best performance of the week. The engagement here was very successful, Mr. Hart leaving the town with not less than $500 in clear profits.
He was so well pleased that he announced that he would return in "the near future."

Saturday afternoon the ladies were the subjects hypnotized on the stage.

Sixteen ladies, some of them society leaders, went upon the stage and all but two were hypnotized.
Half a dozen were especially responsive subjects and were put to sleep and made to chase butterflies, gather flowers, wind yarn, etc.
Five of them danced a skirt dance, gracefully and in time to the music of the piano played by Mrs. Ben Boyd, the opera house pianist.

After the ladies left the stage a class of small children took their places. Nearly all of these were easy subjects and were placed under hypnotic influence.

Saturday night the unusual feature was the breaking of a 400-pound rock with a sledge-hammer upon the rigid form of Mr. Jean, a resident of the city. It took six men to place the rock on the subject's chest, stretched between the backs of two chairs in a cataleptic state. The hammer was wielded by O. P. Lewis, the blacksmith, and pieces of broken stone flew in every direction, until the powerful strokes caused one of the chairs to begin to break down before the experiment was completed by splitting the rock in two. Mr. Jean emerged from the ordeal unhurt and was restored to consciousness and walked smiling from the stage.

Many of the best acts of the entire week were repeated by request and several new features added.

Among the local parties who were the "easiest subjects" and took part in the stage performances, some of them every night, were J.
M. Jean, Louis Fuqua, "Jocko" Wiley, Wallace Harris, John Ducker, Harry Edwards, Herman Ennis, Ewell Wood, Jas. Garity, Jesse Reeves, Jas. Quarles, Herbert Fruit, Will Wicks, W. L.
Whitesides, Stanley West, Frank Byars, Jr., Charlie Nash, Carl Moore, Mason Bramham, Geo.
Keach, Durward Roach, and others.

Several local people took lessons from Mr. Hart and can perform many of the things done by him, putting subjects to sleep, etc.
